Registering MintDDNS to DVR (2017)

1. Using any web browser, simply go to www.416nvr.com. Please refer to the picture below:

2. Register your own DDNS account for free on the website. Please refer to the picture below:

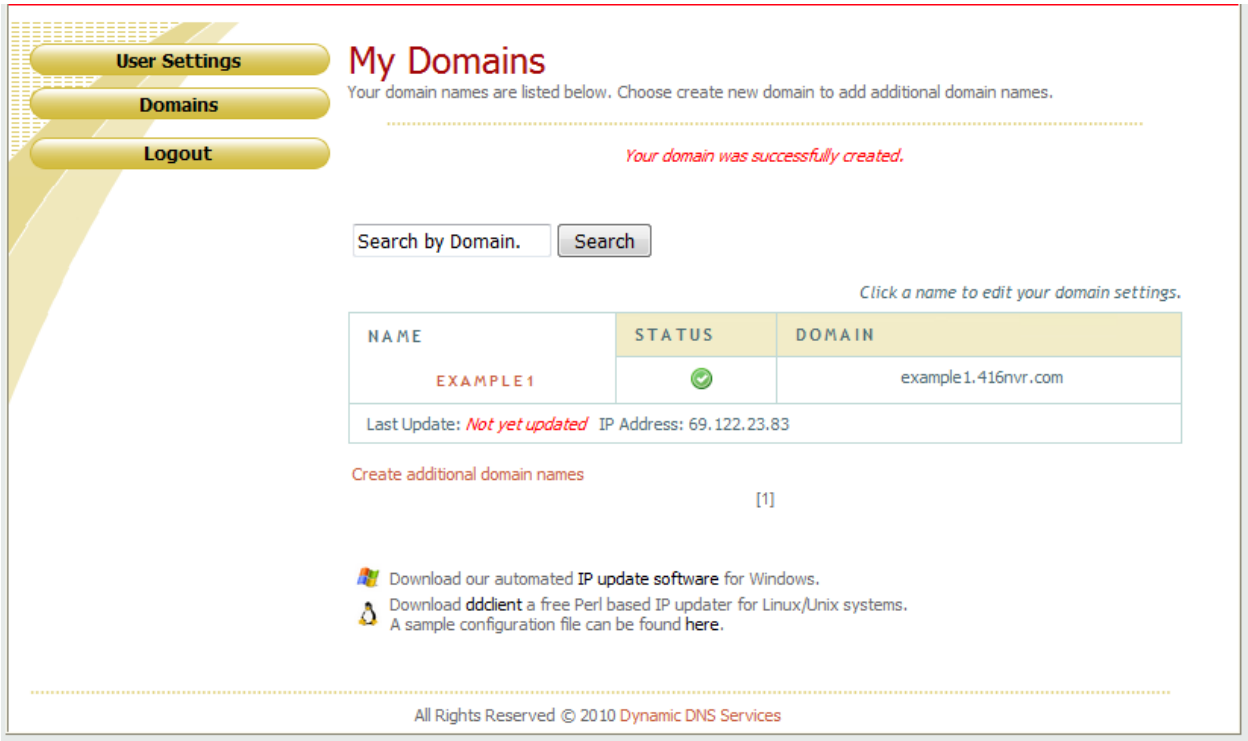

3. Once you are done with the registration, please login to your account to add domain names. Please refer to the picture below:

4. Under the section "Domain Name Creation," please enter your domain name for the DVR and press the "Request Domain" button to create a domain. Please refer to the picture below:

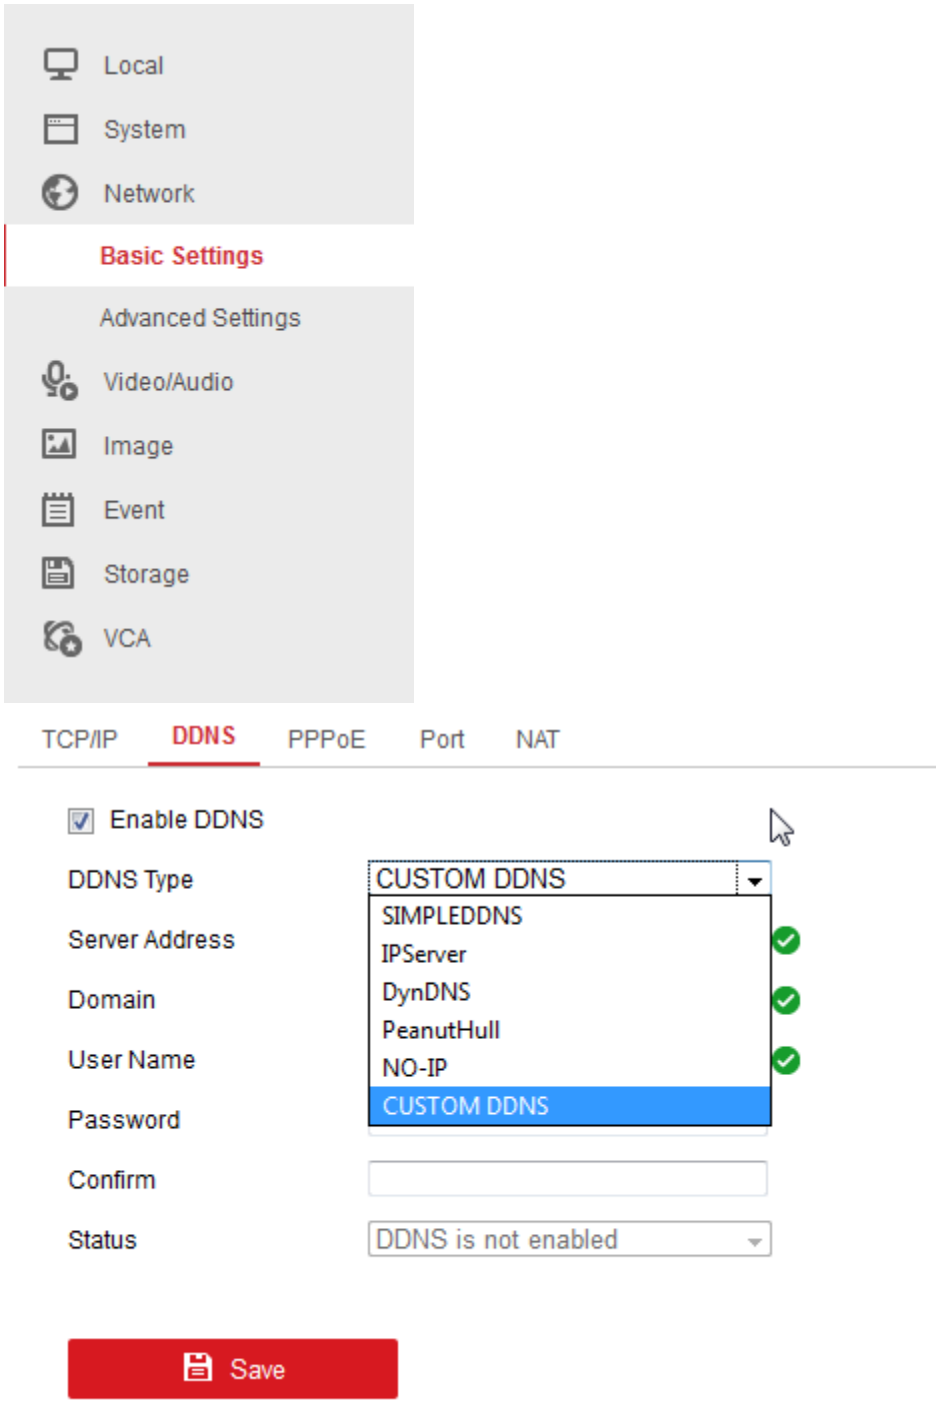

5. For example, we have created a domain name "example1." Please refer to the picture below:

6. Once you are done with creating a domain, access the DVR via Internet Explorer and go into "Configuration." Please refer to the picture below:

7. Go to “Network” -> “Basic Settings” -> “DDNS.” Please refer to the pictures below:

8. Select “Enable DDNS” and set “DDNS Type” to “CUSTOM DDNS.” Please refer to the picture below:

9. Enter www.416nvr.com for “Server Address.” -> Enter the domain name you have created previously from the website for “Domain.” -> Enter the account or username you have created previously on the website for “User Name.” -> Enter your account or username password you have created previously on the website for “Password.” Then lastly, confirm the password and click the “Save” button. Please refer to the picture below:

10. To add the DDNS to your mobile device, please input to information according to the example picture shown below:

